

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3293 - SB 3343

February 24, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires a supervising public servant to report information to the Comptroller of the Treasury which causes such public servant to believe that another public servant or contractor has committed theft, forgery, credit card fraud or unlawfully taken public funds, property or services of the public entity.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes such information can already be reported to the Comptroller and to the extent the provisions of the bill result in additional reporting the Comptroller's office may experience an increase in administrative expenditures associated with such reports. This increase is estimated to be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".

James W. White, Executive Director